Introduction

Speech and debate programs are designed to help students develop their public speaking and critical thinking skills.

These programs typically involve competitive events where students compete against each other in various categories such as speeches, debates, and interpretive events. This handbook is designed to provide an overview of speech and debate programs, including the benefits of participation, the different types of events, and tips for success.

Gain New Experiences.
Meet Young and Aspiring
Leaders and Thinkers

Develop Your Communication Skills to Be Able to Inspire and Move People

Increase Your Confidence and Convince Others Using Logic and Reason

Benefits of Participation:

Participation in speech and debate programs can have numerous benefits for students. Some of the key benefits include:

- Improved public speaking skills: Speech and debate programs provide students with opportunities to develop and improve their public speaking skills. By practicing and performing speeches in front of judges and audiences, students can become more comfortable and confident when speaking in public.
- Enhanced critical thinking skills: Through research and preparation for debates, students develop their critical thinking skills. They learn how to analyze and evaluate arguments, and how to think logically and persuasively.
- Increased confidence: Speech and debate programs provide students with opportunities to overcome their fear of public speaking and develop confidence in their abilities.
- Development of communication skills: In addition to public speaking, speech and debate programs help students improve their communication skills, including listening, understanding, and responding to others.
- Preparation for college and careers: The skills developed through participation in speech and debate programs can be valuable for college and career success, as they are highly sought after by employers and universities.

Program Pathway

There are 3 to 4 terms in each year available for students depending on how many classes they would like to enroll in and their experience or skill level. Once students have completed their first 8-Week Program, there will be a month break before the next term commences.

Each course will cover different topics according to their level.

It is highly recommended to join a competition or event in conjunction with the course as they are able to apply the skills they have learnt, would be a great source of motivation to do their best and test their skills and progress.

Classes

We are thrilled to offer one of the most comprehensive and engaging classes in the field. Our program is designed to help students build a strong foundation in public speaking and debate, while also developing their critical thinking skills, research abilities, and overall confidence.

Our expert instructors are not only experienced in speech and debate, but they are also passionate about helping students succeed. They provide a fun and engaging learning environment, where students can feel comfortable exploring their creativity, challenging their assumptions, and collaborating with peers.
